

Lenggong OUTDOOR FESTIVAL

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lenggong, Malaysia - On July 1st, 2022, an outdoor enthusiasts' dream event took place in a remote area of Lenggong, Malaysia. The event aimed to promote conservation and appreciation of the natural environment in Lenggong, while also providing opportunities for participants to experience the unique culture and traditions of the local community.

The event featured a wide range of outdoor activities, including hiking, rock climbing, rappelling, caving, kayaking, and stand-up paddling. These activities were designed to challenge participants and provide a unique and thrilling experience while surrounded by the natural beauty of Lenggong.

The event also included educational programs that focused on preserving the natural heritage of Lenggong for future generations. Participants had the opportunity to learn about the local ecosystem and the importance of conservation from experts in the field.

In addition to promoting physical and mental well-being, the event also provided a platform for participants to connect with nature and learn about the importance of sustainable tourism. The event organizers also highlighted the importance of supporting the local economy by promoting sustainable tourism and encouraging participants to spend time in local communities.

"We are thrilled with the success of this event and the impact it has had on promoting conservation and sustainable tourism in Lenggong," said Shamsul, Event Director . "We believe that outdoor sports such as hiking, rock climbing, caving, kayaking and stand-up paddling are a great way to connect with nature and appreciate its beauty while also promoting physical fitness and mental well-being.

We look forward to continuing to provide opportunities for people to connect with nature and learn about the importance of preserving our natural heritage for future generations."

For more information about the event and future events, please visit www.outdoorfest.my

